

The Mariposa Project Provides

Dynamic instructors/supervisors
Team-oriented environment
Individual opportunities and support to each participant
Opportunities for initiative & creativity
Healthy communication, cooperation, coordination = collaboration
Encouragement to fulfill your career aspiration
Development of or use of your professional skills
After completion of successful Internship; references for resumes
An exciting location

*For those who need university credit, we work with your university to assist you in meeting the requirements of internship

The Mariposa Project is lead by:

The Allstate Treatment

&

Training in Attachment Center

www.tattac.com

We opened our doors more than 18 years ago specializing in working with traumatized children.

Contact: Mac Whyte
macbwhyte@gmail.com
Phone: (956) 242-6183
Fax: (888) 845-9302
(CST)

<http://www.tattac.com/mariposa.html>

Mariposa Project

CHANGE

THE LIVES OF CHILDREN

IN

CHAPALA, MEXICO

MARIPOSA PROJECT PARTICIPANT BENEFITS

Advance insight for career development

Expand your life skills

Increase Spanish skills

Increase your administrative skills

Create or add to a career portfolio

Experience living in an internationally diverse community

Enjoy the best of culture and history exploration

Cultivate international connections & friendships

Have an experience of a lifetime

You watch and enjoy the children changing before your very own eyes.

The focus of the project is to bring academic interns and or citizens of the world (volunteers) to an orphanage in Mexico.

PROJECT GOALS

To develop a child's sense of belonging within the facility they live.

To provide children opportunities to connect with their community.

To design sustainable programs.

TWO PATHS TO ENTER

ACADEMIC

Teachers; nutrition, tutoring, horticulture, early childhood development, physical education, home economics, music, art

Recreation

Medicine; Doctors, Nurses, Nutritionist

Humanities; Children's Literature, Technology, Communications, Cultural Studies, Performing Arts

Engineers; reconstruction, construction, electrical, plumbing, drainage

Psychology

International Studies; Studies in Spanish, Law

Social Work

CITIZENS OF THE WORLD

Apply your education and life skills for children in Mexico

Regardless of the path you choose to enter you will be working with experienced individuals who share your passion.